

MISSION OPPORTUNITY
BOA (BEAUTY OUT OF ASHES HAITI)

Beauty Out of Ashes is a mission agency serving abused and abandoned girls in Haiti. The ministry has its own property and facilities suitable to accommodate up to 24 girls. We are looking for a couple, with a sincere heart to minister to the physical and spiritual needs of the girls. The couple would work with the founding couple and local staff in providing supervision and oversight of the home in areas, such as, shopping for material needs of the home, overall administrative duties and supervision. Some education instruction in English would be expected. Candidates must have a deep commitment to serving Christ, be members in good standing and with the recommendation of their local church and have strong relational skills for working cooperatively with staff and girls in the home. Basic accommodations are provided however additional financial support would be raised by the candidates. Visit boahaiti.org for an overview of the ministry.
