

Director of Music Wanted

Role

First Baptist Church, Regina is seeking a part time, permanent Director of Music to build up and encourage the musical gifts of the congregation for worship, relationship, discipleship, and ministry, and to encourage and minister to the neighbourhood and the music community.

Reports to Lead Pastor.

Resumes will be accepted until the position is filled.

Suggested starting date is August 2022.

Other starting date options are negotiable.

Please visit our website at <https://firstbaptistregina.ca> to see the full job description.

The successful candidate will

- Have personal warmth and enjoy people of all ages and backgrounds
- Appreciate a broad range of Christian music and be familiar with contemporary songs and traditional hymns
- Understand “liturgical” style church services
- Be happy to participate in the life of the church
- See more at <https://firstbaptistregina.ca>

Areas of Accountability – please see <https://firstbaptistregina.ca>

1. Treat, and encourage others to treat, all our activity as a means of worship, relationship, discipleship, and ministry.
2. Music leadership on Sunday mornings and special services
3. Church choir: Leading, planning, rehearsing, recruiting inside and outside the church

Education/Training/Experience:

- Post-Secondary degree in Music and/or Music Education
- Ability to reflect theologically
- Experience in choral conducting
- Experience recruiting volunteers an asset
- See more at <https://firstbaptistregina.ca>

Expression of Interest

If you believe you could serve our church community in this position, please submit your resume and cover letter to: main_fbcregina@sasktel.net

Questions welcome! Those can be directed to our email address, or by calling the church at 306-359-1450.

Competitive remuneration and benefits package negotiable.