Providence University College

International Student Refund Policy

READ BEFORE SIGNING

Refund of Admission-Tuition Deposit

Admission-Tuition deposit refunds will only be issued if the student VISA and/or study permit is denied. Students must notify Providence University College by submitting a request to the Business Office, including a copy of the official study permit rejection letter from the Canadian Embassy or Consulate. Students must provide a current mailing address when requesting a refund.

Admission-Tuition deposits are refunded in the way they were received and to the individual(s) or organization who made the payment. Further details are available from the Business Office.

Deferral of Admission-Tuition Deposit

Admission-Tuition deposits may be deferred to a future semester to a maximum of one year. Notification of deferral must occur prior to the official start date of the semester for which admission has been granted.

Tuition payments in excess of the deposit are subject to the tuition refund schedule:
